LEVEL B1 · INTERMEDIATE · IELTS STYLE

Speaking Book

60 IELTS-style speaking topics with Part 1 questions, Part 2 cue cards and Part 3 discussions, plus useful vocabulary with Uzbek translations.

12 units | 60 topics | 60 cue cards | 480 questions | 480 words & phrases | 12 mock tests

PART 2 · CUE CARD

Describe a free-time activity that you enjoy doing.

You should say:

- What the activity is
- How often you do it
- Who you usually do it with

And explain why you enjoy doing this activity in your free time.

The IELTS Speaking test

Part 1 · Interview

4–5 minutes

Short questions about you, your home, work, study and interests. Answer in 2–3 sentences.

Part 2 · Cue card

3–4 minutes

You get a card with a topic. Prepare for 1 minute, then speak for 1–2 minutes. Cover every point.

Part 3 · Discussion

4–5 minutes

More general, abstract questions linked to Part 2. Give opinions, reasons and examples.

HOW YOU ARE ASSESSED

Fluency & coherence	Speak without long pauses and link your ideas (firstly, however, so).
Vocabulary	Use topic words and collocations from the Words & phrases box.
Grammar	Use a mix of tenses and some longer sentences (because, when, if).
Pronunciation	Speak clearly, stress key words and use natural intonation.

PART 2: PLAN IN ONE MINUTE

Write 3–5 key words for each point on the card, not full sentences.

Start with: “I’m going to talk about ...”

Add details: who, where, when, how, why.

Finish with the “explain” point — your feelings and reasons.

PART 3: GIVE A FULL ANSWER

Opinion Reason Example Other side

“I think so, yes. The main reason is that people work longer hours now. For example, my father often works until eight. On the other hand, technology saves us a lot of time.”
