An email from Laylo 📧👋

From: Laylo · To: Emma

Hello Emma! Thank you for your email from London. My name is Laylo. I am eleven years old. I am a student at School 15 in Samarkand. Samarkand is a beautiful city in Uzbekistan.

This is my best friend, Madina. She is in my class. She is very funny! Bobur is her brother. He is not in our class. He is twelve. Bobur and Madina are my neighbours.

Our English teacher is Mrs Karimova. She is very nice. Every day she says, “Good morning, class!” We say, “Good morning, Mrs Karimova!” English class is my favourite. I am happy in English class. It is not difficult.

In Uzbekistan, we say “Assalomu alaykum!” to say hello. We say “Xayr!” to say goodbye. What do you say in England? Are you a student too? Please write soon!

Bye for now, Laylo

A letter from Ali

From: Ali · To: Laylo

Dear Laylo, How are you? We have a new flat in Tashkent, and I have a new room! It is small, but I love it. Here is my room.

My bed is next to the window. There is a blue blanket on it. My desk is near the bed. My computer is on the desk, and my school bag is under the desk. There is a big lamp between the bed and the desk.

My clothes are in the wardrobe. My cat, Momiq, sleeps on the wardrobe! There is a red Uzbek carpet on the floor. It is from Grandma. My books are on a shelf above the bed.

The kitchen is next to my room. Mom makes plov there every Friday. Come to Tashkent in the summer! Please bring your photos. And don’t forget your football!

Write soon! Love, Ali

My trip to Samarkand

Laylo’s Travel Blog · Monday

Hello, friends! My name is Laylo, and I’m eleven. This summer, my family and I are in Samarkand. It’s a beautiful old city. You should visit it, too! Here is my advice.

First, you should go to the Registan. There are three big buildings with blue and gold tiles. Lots of tourists take photos there. In the evening, there is a light show. It’s amazing!

Next, you should go to Siyob bazaar. You should try the Samarkand non. It’s big, round and very tasty. My brother Bobur eats two every day!

Should you go in July? No, you shouldn’t! The weather is very hot then. You should go in spring or autumn. You should also see the Afrosiyob museum. There are very old wall paintings there.

What should you bring? You should bring a hat, water and a camera. Write a comment and tell me: Which city should I visit next?
